Practical Tips on Compliance with Section 4(f) of the U.S. DOT Act

Tuesday, March 23, 2010
1:00–2:30 p.m. Eastern Time

This webinar will present the recently published Complying with Section 4(f) of the U.S. DOT Act Practitioner's Handbook (Number 11). The handbook and associated resource material is posted on the Center for Environmental Excellence web site http://environment.transportation.org/center/products_programs/practitioners_handbooks.aspx

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE

Transportation professionals interested in learning about key elements of 4(f), practical tips, and quick and easy access to environmental tools to help comply with 4(f) regulations.

FORMAT

The webinar will include a presentation by Bill Malley of Perkins Coie LLP, the author of the handbook. The presentation will focus on practical tips for achieving compliance with Section 4(f). The webinar also will include a question-and-answer period with panelists including Section 4(f) experts from FHWA's Resource Center and Chief Counsel's office.

Topics covered in this webinar will include:

- Identifying and evaluating potential Section 4(f) resources

- Determining applicability of Section 4(f)
- Making 'de minimis' impact determinations
- Developing and evaluating avoidance alternatives, and determining prudence and feasibility of those alternatives
- Comparing alternatives to determine which causes 'least overall harm'
- Coordinating Section 4(f) decision-making with Section 106 consultation
- Developing legally sound and readable Section 4(f) documentation
